LET'S WORK
FOR WILDLIFE

Arriving at London Zoo

When you arrive, you may have to wait in a queue outside with other people before going in.

There may be people who you don't know who are also waiting.

Places you might go to at the zoo

The people who work at London Zoo are here to help you

They wear green shirts, blue shirts or red shirts with London Zoo written on them.

You can look at the animals, but you must not touch them.

Who lives at London Zoo?

Some of the animals will be big, like this Giraffe

Some of the animals will be very small like this mantis!

Who lives at London Zoo?

Some of the animal homes are inside and very warm

Other animal homes are outside

In some animal homes you can walk next to the animals.

There might be some unusual smell as you walk around because animals smell very different from humans.

Sometimes the animals make noises!

Things to see at London Zoo

The keeper uses a microphone so that everyone can hear at our talks or demonstrations

The animals may come close but will not touch you at the demonstration

Places you might go to in the Zoo

There are lots of places where you can buy food if you are hungry.

You can also bring your own food and have a picnic.

Sit by a tree on one of the lawns, or explore the Wildlife Garden by Land of the Lions

Places you might go to in the Zoo

There are shops where you can buy things, and toilets you can use

Time to leave London Zoo

After your day at the Zoo, you can tell all your friends and family about all the animals you saw and all the fun you had!
